

NCC October Meeting

The October meeting featured John Burrage, a professional photographer, who was a wealth of information on cameras and accessories.

How time flies when you are having fun. Before we knew it, it was time for our usual break, and it seemed we had just started.

John discussed film and digital cameras, flashes, software and answered all questions from the members and guests in attendance. He also displayed some of his works to further illustrate his use of cameras.

